Happy Birthday Dr. Seuss on March 2nd

"You're never too old, too wacky, too wild, to pick up a book and read to a child."

Read Across America

What better way to celebrate Dr. Seuss's birthday than reading to a child? On Tuesday, March 2, Dr. Seuss's birthday, the National Education Association (NEA) urges you to participate in Read Across America by reading to a child.

Why Celebrate Dr. Seuss?

Dr. Seuss epitomizes a love of children and learning. Also, his use of rhyme makes his books an effective tool for teaching young children the basic skills they need to be successful. When we celebrate Dr. Seuss and reading, we send a clear message to America's children that reading is fun and important.

We've compiled some materials to help you celebrate the day:

Celebrate the Persian New Year at Canyon Hills Library

Canyon Hills Library will open special hours on Saturday, March 13 to present their annual Nowrooz program. The word Nowrooz literally means "new day" in Persian, and the festival marks the beginning of the solar year and new year on the Iranian calendar, as well as among several other nationalities.

The Canyon Hills program begins at 2:00pm, celebrating the Persian New Year with authentic music and dancing. The Library will be open to the public from 1 to 6 pm on the day of the event.
